

Harriet Tubman Underground Railroad State Park's Third First Day Hike

Join Team Tubman for our third First Day Hike and start 2020 off on the right boot!

Title: Start the Year of the Woman at Harriet's House

Date and Time of Event: January 1, 2020 at 10:00 a.m.

Meeting Location: The lobby of the Visitor Center

Degree of Difficulty: Easy hikes for families

Length of Hikes: Approximately 1.5 miles

Cost: The hike is free, but donations are appreciated

Things to Bring: Participants are asked to wear clothes and shoes appropriate for the weather (rain, snow or shine) and bring water for drinking.

RSVP: Registration is required. Please e-mail Ranger Angela Crenshaw (angela.crenshaw@maryland.gov) to register and for information about the event.

Additional Information: 2020 is the Year of the Woman and in honor of Harriet Tubman, join Team Tubman for a 1.5 mile hike on the Blackwater National Wildlife Refuge's Wildlife Drive. Hike along the Blackwater River and see Canada and snow geese, tundra swans, bald eagles, ducks, sika deer and other wildlife found in South Dorchester County. This will be an easy hike perfect for families. The wildlife drive is flat and paved. Pets are not permitted in the refuge. Guests are welcome to enjoy hot cocoa and light refreshments after the hike. Then explore the Visitor Center and learn about the life and legacy of Harriet Tubman, an American shero.

Flex your Harriet Tubman and Underground Railroad knowledge by participating in Tubman Trivia at 1:30 p.m., the top two teams will receive a prize! Take your experience further and become a Junior Ranger or visit our research library. To register e-mail Ranger Angela Crenshaw (angela.crenshaw@maryland.gov).
